EXPLANATION

The present application was abandoned on June 26, 2006 based on failure to submit the fees and documents required by 35 U.S.C. §371(c) prior to the expiration of the time set in 37 C.F.R. §1.495(b) or (c) as applicable. The abandonment occurred without the knowledge of Inventor Elena Shembel (and likely the other named inventors). After recently finding about the abandonment Inventor Shembel has taken affirmative and timely actions to continue prosecution of the present case, including the selection of the present patent counsel and payment fees and submission of documents required by 35 U.S.C. §371(c) due June 25, 2007. Thus, the abandonment was unintentional as to Inventor Shembel. The Petition for Revival of an International Application for Patent Designating the U.S. Abandoned Unintentionally Under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) is accompanied by the petition fee of $750.00, the U.S. National Phase filing fee of $500.00, and documents associated with the same.
